

Chritkindlesmarkt at Main Market Square

The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt is a must-visit destination for anyone seeking a quintessential holiday experience. Held annually in Nuremberg's historic city center, this world-famous Christmas market has been a festive tradition since the 16th century. The market is renowned for its charming atmosphere, characterized by beautifully decorated wooden stalls, twinkling lights, and the enchanting sounds of Christmas carols. Visitors can explore a wide array of traditional crafts, festive decorations, and, of course, delectable holiday treats like Nuremberg gingerbread and bratwurst.

The highlight of the market is the appearance of the "Christkind," a young angelic figure who opens the market with a heartwarming proclamation from the balcony of Church of our Lady. The Christkindlesmarkt offers a magical experience, immersing visitors in the spirit of the season and showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Nuremberg.
